"I never painted dreams.
I painted my own reality." - Frida Kahlo

ABOUT THE PROJECT

Frida's story has always spoken to me. Her courage, her pain, and her refusal to be defined by either. Through years of physical suffering and heartbreak, she transformed her reality into art that was raw, honest, and fiercely beautiful.

I created Frida Kahlo: A Woman Who Dared to celebrate that resilience and to honor a woman who lived boldly, loved deeply, and made art that still resonates with truth and defiance.

Her spirit reminds me, and I hope reminds you, to live without apology and to find beauty even in our brokenness.

SOBRE EL PROYECTO

La historia de Frida siempre me ha conmovido profundamente. Su valentía, su dolor y su negativa a ser definida por cualquiera de ellos. A través de años de sufrimiento físico y desengaños amorosos, transformó su realidad en un arte crudo, honesto y profundamente hermoso.

Creé Frida Kahlo: Una Mujer que se Atrevió para celebrar esa resiliencia y honrar a una mujer que vivió con valentía, amó profundamente y creó un arte que aún resuena con verdad y desafío.

Su espíritu me recuerda, y espero que también les recuerde a ustedes, vivir sin disculpas y encontrar belleza incluso en nuestras heridas.
